Student's Capacity

This performance is suitable for primary school students. It contains Curriculum Framework links to Drama, Art, Dance and Music.

Students will be involved in viewing a performance that is 50 minutes.

If you are bringing students with special needs or intensive health care needs please contact the venue to ensure that the venue is suitable. For activity specific information please contact the Perth International Arts Festival.

Supervisor/Supervisory Team

It is the responsibility of the school to develop a supervisory team that meets their specific requirements in line with the recommendations for supervision below.

Perth International Arts Festival, performers and venue staff may lead, demonstrate, perform and present activities but will not undertake any role in a supervisory context.

External Provider Information

The Perth International Arts Festival presents Compagnia TPO as part of the 2008 programme.

The Festival has a public liability insurance policy for $20 million.

Supervision Strategies

The development of supervision strategies is the responsibility of schools. The Perth International Arts Festival recommends the ratio of 1 teacher per 10 students as a guide.

School groups will be seated together in the theatre where possible to assist in supervision. It is recommended that teachers spread themselves amongst their students in the venue so they can monitor student behaviour.

Identification of Excursion Participants

This is the responsibility of schools.

School uniform or some form of easily identifiable item for each student is an option which may be considered by schools.

Communication Strategies

The contact phone number for University Theatres is 6488 2691. The contact phone number for the Perth International Arts Festival is 6488 2000.

Emergency Response Plan

For information on venue emergency response planning, please contact the venue directly - <http://www.theatres.uwa.edu.au/>

Briefing Students and Supervisors

Comprehensive Audience Etiquette Guidelines are contained on the Education Page of the Festival website (www.perthfestival.com.au). It is the school's responsibility to brief students on excursion arrangements and performance etiquette prior to attending.

Teachers are encouraged to contact the Education Officer on 6488 8636 to arrange a pre-visit briefing by telephone. The teacher pre-visit phone briefing will allow teachers to ask questions and clarify excursion arrangements.
